

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Mothers' Club Tomorrow.
The Mothers' Club of the W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Roster on Benoni avenue.

With Mrs. Lynch.
Division No. 7 of the Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lynch, 505 Second street. All members are requested to be present.

To Entertain State Officials.
Mrs. J. Gale Eberts, of Parkersburg, president of the West Virginia Suffrage League, will arrive here tomorrow to attend the sessions of the conference of the league and will be the guest of Miss Margaret McKinley. Mrs. Ellis Yost, of Morgantown, will also be a guest at the McKinley home during her stay in the city.

Will Arrive Tomorrow.
Mrs. Mary E. Craigie, chairman of the church work committee of the North American Women's Suffrage Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., will arrive here tomorrow evening. She will address the sessions of the conference of the West Virginia Suffrage League and will go from here to Parkersburg, where she will deliver addresses.

In City Today.
Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Camden McKinley, of Wheeling, were in the city today enroute home from Weston, where they had been the guests of relatives for a few days.

Elks' Dance.
Fairmont Elks were hosts last evening at an elaborately appointed Easter ball, which event was held in the Masonic Assembly Hall. Guests numbering more than 250 were in attendance, the number including many from out of the city besides a large number of college girls and boys who are spending the spring vacations here.

An excellent program of dance music was rendered by the Fairmont Orchestra.

Use H. E. Rumbarger's
"ARTIST"
Hair Dressing and Dandruff
Eradicator
"The Standard Preparation for the Hair and Scalp."
Now Selling at
HOLT'S DRUG CO.
and
M. B. H. Barr's Hair Dressing Parlors.
ONCE USED—ALWAYS USED

When Down
Town
Comet
Hot Chocolate and
Other Hot Drinks
Will Warm You Up

crestra, a colored organization, who also rendered vocal selections during intermissions. The music was excellent and the majority of the guests spent the evening dancing. However, card tables had been arranged for the entertainment of guests who did not dance, and these were occupied during the greater part of the evening.

At the lunch hour a buffet luncheon was served under the direction of W. H. Roush, and fruit punch was served during the evening.

The assembly hall was artistically arranged for the event, growing flowers of every variety being combined in a most effective decoration. The decorations were under the direction of the H. W. Weber Company.

The patronesses for the event were: Mesdames M. L. Hutchinson, W. S. Raymond, J. A. Clark, M. E. Ashcraft, George DeBolt, A. G. Martin, R. T. Cunningham, H. W. Showalter, G. M. Brownfield, Brooks Fleming, Jr., G. H. Brownfield, C. E. Smith, A. B. Scott, M. M. Neely, E. B. Moore, W. S. Black.

The committee on arrangements was composed of Mrs. J. W. D. Evans and John Flanagan. The floor committee was composed of Charles Bartlett, Raymond Haller and S. B. Brooks.

Among out of town guests were: Miss George Andros, Minneapolis; Miss Lolita McCulloch, San Antonio, Texas; Miss Allene Carney, Clarksville; Miss Virginia Chrisman, Miss Grace Courtney, Miss Katherine Courtney, Morgantown; Miss Pelefy, Idaho; Mr. Harry Lambrecht, Grafton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clayton, Mannington; Mr. Carl Beatty, Dr. Bartlett, Mannington.

Mrs. Bailey Hostess.

Mrs. Bruce Bailey is hostess this afternoon at her home on Fourth street to the sewing circle composed of members of the Eastern Star Lodge.

Missionary Meeting Tonight.

The Woman's Foreign Mission Society of the First M. E. Church will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the church parlors. The meeting was postponed from last week. Following the meeting the "Standard Bearers" will render a program under the direction of Mrs. C. O. Jackson.

Guests at Sample Home.
Miss Madge Sample is entertaining at her home at Laurel, Md., Mrs. D. P. Fitch, of this city. Mrs. John Gates, of Philadelphia, had also been the guest of Miss Sample for a day.

Birthday Event.
Mrs. J. W. Coogle and daughter, Miss Katharine, entertained a number of friends at six o'clock dinner at their home on Fifth street, honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Coogle. The event was arranged as a surprise to Mr. Coogle, who found the guests assembled there on his return home. An excellent dinner was served, covers being laid for Messrs. Sam B. Iseman, Howard Jones, Frank and Lowery Coogle, Howard Hawkins and Marcus Moran. Mr. Coogle was the recipient of a number of appropriate gifts. Mrs. Coogle and daughter were assisted in entertaining by the Misses Fletcher and Stotzer.

To Entertain Club.
Mrs. Earl Amos will entertain the Young Married Women's Club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Walnut avenue.

Mrs. Butcher's Guest.
Mrs. A. D. Hopkins, of Parkersburg, who will attend the conference of the West Virginia Suffrage League, will be the guest of Mrs. B. L. Butcher at her home on Gaston avenue during the conference.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Tilton Engle, of Grafton, will arrive here tomorrow to attend the suffrage conference. She will be the guest of Mrs. J. Engle on Walnut avenue.

Miss Olive Nay has returned from Frostburg, Md., where she had spent several weeks as the guest of Mrs. Coyle Manley.

Mrs. A. T. Roberts, who had spent several weeks here with her uncle, Mr. Sam R. Nuzum, will leave tomorrow for Laurel, Md., where she will be the guest for several days of Miss Madge Sample and will go from there to her home at Norfolk, Va.

Miss Elizabeth Lemley will return tonight from Atlantic City, where she accompanied her brother, Mr. Mc. Lemley, and wife.

Miss Milly Bennett, who had spent the Easter vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bennett, will leave tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will re-enter Eden Hall. Mr. Bennett will accompany her to Philadelphia.

Mrs. C. F. Schroeder, of Grafton, was here last evening for the Maude Powell recital at the Grand.

Dwight Miller, of Olcott, is the week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. Henry Capito.—Charleston Gazette.

Mrs. Martha Davis leaves tomorrow afternoon for Washington, D. C., where she will spend several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Shinn, and family. She will also spend a few days with her cousin, Robert Shinn, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Sarah Cunningham, who has been very ill at her home on Maple avenue for several weeks, is improving slowly.

Miss Louise Haight, of Fairview, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mrs. O. J. Sutton, of Fairview, was shopping here yesterday.

Mrs. Dent Holden remains very ill at her home on the East Side.

A daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Boggess at their home on Diamond street.

Mrs. G. W. Henderson has returned from Tunneton, where she was called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Rachael Zinn.

Joe Greer and sister, Miss Mart, of Terra Alta, are guests at the home of their grandfather, Mr. J. M. Hartley, on Quincy street.

Miss Katharine Bishop, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Cook Hospital on Saturday, is improving.

Mrs. Mary Hamilton, who has been the guest of Mrs. Alexander Robb for several days, left this morning for Belington.

President O. I. Woodley, of the Normal School, and Mrs. Woodley left last night for Millington, N. J., to spend a week.

Miss Dora Lee Newman was called to her home at Wheeling yesterday by the illness and death of her brother, Judge Newman.

Woman's Club Plans Mannington Meeting

As announced in this paper several weeks ago, the district convention of the Woman's Club will be held in Mannington on Friday, May 14.

This will be the second district convention, these conventions having been inaugurated a year ago when the first meeting was held in Fairmont. The district is composed of the women's clubs of the First Congressional district of West Virginia.

Mrs. A. L. Lehman is vice president for this district and will go to Mannington on Saturday, where she will confer with Mannington club women and formulate plans for the convention.

The clubs of the Second Congressional district will meet on the day following the Mannington convention at Morgantown.

Mrs. R. L. Hutchinson, president of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, will be present at both conventions.

Funeral Held Over Mrs. Gettings Today

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Patrick Gettings, whose death occurred Sunday, were held this morning at 10 o'clock at St. Peter's Catholic Church.

Funeral services were held at the services and interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery. Two special cars carried the funeral party to the cemetery, the condition of the roads making passage in carriages impractical. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends, including many from out of town.

B. & N. Scattering More Slag On Track

Many more cars of slag have been received over the B. & N. R. R. in the past few days for the filling in of the tracks. Five car loads were taken to the extreme end of the road on Merchant street this morning.

"TYPHOID MARY" CARRIES VERY POTENT GERMS.

NEW YORK—Dr. M. L. Ogan, chief of the division of epidemiology of the department of health, has explained why the immunization of doctors and nurses involved in the outbreak of typhoid fever at Sloan hospital for women recently was apparently so unsuccessful. The outbreak was the one caused by "Typhoid Mary" Mallon.

"Miss Mallon carries bacilli of a high degree of infectiousness," he said. "She is now the most famous 'carrier' in history."

PLANS COMPLETED FOR SUFFRAGE MEET

Delegates Will Begin To Arrive Tomorrow For the Session.

Plans for the conference of the West Virginia Suffrage League are rapidly nearing completion. The state officials, the speakers and those who have been called to the conference will begin to arrive in the city tomorrow evening while others will come on Thursday morning.

The first session of the conference will be held on Thursday afternoon at the Country Club when addresses of welcome will be delivered by Mrs. Beulah Boyd Ritchie, president of the local Political Equality Club, and Mayor Anthony Bowen.

On Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock a banquet will be served at the Mayfield hotel. One hundred covers will be laid for this banquet, including persons here for the conference, local people and those who will participate on the program.

Mrs. J. Gale Eberts, of Parkersburg, president of the West Virginia Suffrage League, will preside as toastmistress at the banquet. Mrs. Eberts will arrive here tomorrow evening and will be the guest of Miss Margaret McKinley at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. McKinney. Mrs. Ellis Yost will arrive here Thursday and will also be entertained at the McKinley home on First street.

On Friday morning a meeting of the state executive committee will be held. Miss Margaret McKinney, of this city, and Mrs. Beulah Boyd Ritchie are members of the state executive committee.

Friday afternoon will be given over to discussions of methods for the campaign which the women will wage for the ratification of the suffrage amendment in 1916. The slogan adopted by the women is "Victory 1916."

Mrs. Mary E. Craigie, chairman of the churchwork committee of the North American Women's Suffrage Association, will address the conference on Friday evening at the Temple on the subject "The Ideal Suffragist." Mrs. Craigie will arrive here Wednesday evening from Buffalo and will leave here Saturday for Parkersburg, where she will deliver addresses before the women's clubs of that city. Mrs. Craigie is a speaker of international fame and her address will be a splendid one. Another speaker who will be heard with interest, who also is a noted worker in suffrage leagues is Miss Elizabeth J. Hauser of Warren, Ohio. Miss Hauser is talented as an organizer and her address will deal with methods for the campaign to be conducted in the state. Her subject will be "Campaign Methods."

Among the persons who will be here for the conference are Dr. Rossa and his wife, Dr. McCune Rossa, of Martinsburg, who will arrive here tomorrow evening; Miss Beatrice Yeater, of New Martinsville; Mrs. Eugene Ford, of Grafton; Mrs. Tilton Engle, of Grafton; Miss Florence Hogue, of Wheeling; Mrs. Schroeder, of Grafton; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Yost, of Morgantown; Mrs. E. Gale Eberts, of Parkersburg, state president of the West Virginia Suffrage League; Mrs. A. D. Hopkins, of Parkersburg; Dr. Harriet B. Jones, of Wheeling; Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sturgess, of Morgantown; Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ruhl, of Clarksburg; Judge J. C. McWhorter, of Buckhannon; Judge Frank Cox, of Morgantown; Ex-Governor W. B. Glasscock, of Morgantown; Judge Frank Nesbitt, of Wheeling; Thos. B. Hodges, of Morgantown; Mrs. W. D. Woodbridge, of Parkersburg; Harold Houston, of Charleston; Mrs. Thos. Pedro, Parkersburg; Miss Carrie Zane, Wheeling.

The tickets for the banquet are in the hands of Mrs. Charles E. Manley, chairman of the entertainment committee, and those desiring same can secure them from Mrs. Manley. The tickets will cost one dollar.

The following committees are in charge of the conference:

Resolution—Miss Florence Hogue, Wheeling, chairman; Mrs. Margaret E. McKinney, Mrs. R. L. Cunningham.

Reception committee—Mrs. C. E. Manley, Mrs. Allie Haymond. Decoration committee—Mrs. A. L. Lehman, Miss Edna Morgan.

Today A Style Show of Women's New Footwear By Edwin C. Burt Shoe Co.

Showing the latest Styles in Women's Shoes and Slippers for Spring and Summer. Every imaginable combination of colors in women's pumps, oxfords and military boots will be represented in the display. Every woman particular about her footwear should attend this showing. Accept this as an urgent request to come and see what's new in shoes. (First Floor.)

Embroideries Strongly Favored For Summer—Now Ready

Fine, sheer embroideries of voile, swiss and batiste, not large in size and of a delicate character, in width up to 21 inches. With white beading and narrow widths popular, are the leading features in embroidery styles this year, for the tiers and ruffles of the wide skirted summer frock and summer underwear.

Prices start at 12½¢ and go up to 50¢ a yard. All over Embroidery in swiss and nainsook, 21 inches wide, at 50¢ to $1.75 a yard.

Covert Embroidery, excellent quality, suitable for ladies' and children's undergarments at 10¢, 12½¢ and 15¢ a yard.

One lot of fine swiss Corset Cover Embroidery at 50¢ a yard. On demonstration.)

"Little Fairy Dress" Embroideries

"They make the sweetest little dresses for children," said a lady at the embroidery counter. This good lady was perfectly right, for with a little insertion and a yard of Little Fairy Dress Embroidery, one can make the prettiest child's dress imaginable. This embroidery is made of fine swiss with pleated embroidered flounce, with wide beading at top. A free pattern with each purchase gives chart and general directions.

Materials required for 2, 3 or 4 years is one yard of Embroidered material for body and sleeves.

For 5 or 6 years requires 1 yard of Embroidered material and 1-4 yard extra or plain lawn for sleeves. Price of Embroideries is $1.50 a yard. (First Floor.)

Women's New Suits and Gowns

Are coming in most every day. The very last expression of color, material and fashioning of women's new Suits and Gowns are here at your door.

And it is surprising what real smart suits can be had for $15, $18 and $25.

Some new Afternoon and Dance Dresses in silks and laces are very charming at $18 to $25. (Second Floor.)

Just A Word to the Wise AWNINGS

Now is the time to place your order, so that you will have them before the sun gets too high. (Third Floor, Carpet Dept.)

Spring and Summer Millinery

This season the beautiful graceful curves of the early colonial bonnets are yours to wear, but of course they are much smarter than those of olden times. The new Transparent hats are very popular, too.

And various sizes in the new sailor hats, ranging from the largest shapes to the smallest have won great favor. Prices very moderate, $3.50 to $12.50. (Second Floor.)

The New Baby Coaches for Spring Are Ready

This Reed Go-Cart

With reversible gear; rubber tired, 12½-inch steel wheels; upholstered complete in Bedford Cord; nickel plated trimmings; wind shield; natural color. Only $16.50.

A TOURIST
COLLAPSIBLE
GO-CART
For $5.00

This Go-Cart, as pictured, folds with one motion, has 10-inch rubber tires; spring seat; adjustable back and foot; finished in first quality leatherette; durable and light. Colors black or tan. Special $5.

Other Tourists Collapsible Go-Carts in black, tan or grey are $7 to $15. (Furniture, Fifth Floor.)

This Sewing
Rocker, Special
98c

WEDNESDAY. This comfortable, well made rocker of good maple stock, free from knots and finished in natural color of green enamel; double woven rattan seat. Special for Wednesday, 98c. Note—No phone orders filled.

WEHRLEY EASTER PLANTS AT HALF PRICE

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY We will sell the remainder of our Easter Plant Stock Consisting of Spireas, Baby Rambler Roses, Hydrangeas, Easter Lilies, Lilacs, Hybrid Tea Plants, Hyacinths and Ferns.

25c to 75c Nothing Higher

WEHRLEY